

Cut out both circles of the Life of a Crystal.

The white circle goes placed on top of the purple circle.

When you cut away the pie shaped area on the white circle you will see where to place a brad. Be sure it is centered.

The purple circle is larger than the white circle so that when you place the white circle on top, a pretty purple border will go all the way around.

